

Small Grant Application Form

Terms and Conditions

£500 or less

These Terms and Conditions (Conditions) accompany the Small Grant Application Form issued by The Cecchetti Society Trust, a charitable incorporated organisation incorporated in England with company registration number CE028308 (the Trust). The Conditions, the Small Grant Application Form and the offer letter from the Trust together form the basis of the legal relationship entered into between the Trust and the applicant, should the application be successful (Contract). The applicant acknowledges that in coming to the decision to award a grant, the Trust will rely on the information provided in the Small Grant Application Form.

1. Protecting the Trust's Funds, Other Assets and Aims

- 1.1. The Trust has a responsibility to ensure that its funds are being used in the right way. The Trust reserves the right to require applicants to provide additional documentation including (but not limited to) information about organisational governance, finance, and safeguarding.
- 1.2. Without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 1.1, the Trust also reserves the right to require applicants to provide updates on the additional documentation referred to in Condition 1.1 and generally.
- 1.3. Applicants in receipt of grant money from the Trust must treat such money as a restricted fund. This means that the money must only be used for that which was the subject of the grant application (as set out on the Small Grant Application Form). The Trust shall not be obliged to, but may, seek confirmation of how such grant money is spent.
- 1.4. In the event of a successful application, the Trust will supply the applicant with the Trust's logo (Logo) for limited use on the applicant's printed and digital media to acknowledge the Activity being funded by the Trust. Successful applicants shall only use the Logo for the purposes set out in the Small Grant Application Form and in the format supplied by the Trust (including colour, aspect ratios and as relevant set out in the grant offer letter from the Trust). Applicants undertake not to use the Logo in a way which could tarnish the reputation of the Trust or otherwise damage the Trust or its interests in any way.
- 1.5. It is a condition of funding that successful applicants acknowledge the Trust in the format specified in the grant offer letter from the Trust.
- 1.6. The Trust reserves the right to withdraw, refuse or require repayment of funding where the applicant has committed a material breach of these Conditions, and has not remedied (if capable of remedy) that breach within 10 days of written notice from the Trust to do so.

2. Small Grant

- 2.1. A small grant is a one-off award for an amount up to a maximum of £500 and is designed for a single Activity.

3. Eligibility

- 3.1. The Trust will only consider applications which in the Trust's opinion align with the Trust's objective to encourage, support and promote participation in Cecchetti classical ballet.
- 3.2. Applicants must be incorporated, established or resident (as applicable) in the United Kingdom or be a current member of the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing (ISTD) Cecchetti Classical Ballet Faculty or be the ISTD itself, or be member organisation of Cecchetti International Classical Ballet (CICB) or be CICB itself.

4. Form of Application

- 4.1. All applications must be made on the application form CST SGAF 2024 (the Small Grant Application Form).
- 4.2. Applicants should submit evidence of the activity, such as a covering letter on the organisation's official letter head, social media advertising, printed brochure.
- 4.3. Subsequent applications for funding (whether or not the first application was successful) must form the subject of a fresh application and must be submitted on the Small Grant Application Form as made available by the Trust from time-to-time.

5. Application Submission Date

- 5.1. Applications must be submitted to the Trust no later than 15 June in any given year, for consideration for funding to be granted between 1 September and the following 31 August (unless specified otherwise in any related Trust advertisement inviting applications for small grants) (the Activity Period).
- 5.2. The Trust will endeavour to respond with its decision by 31 July however the Trust gives no guarantees in this regard.

6. Funding request

- 6.1. The purpose on which the grant will be spent should be fully itemised on the Small Grant Application Form where indicated.
- 6.2. Specific itemised costs can include (but are not limited to) cost of venue hire, adjudicator, lecturer or professional artist fees and travel expenses, entry fees, and other itemised costs involved in holding courses and events, and producing resources.
- 6.3. The Trust will not fund the items referred to in Condition 7. Applicants should not include such items in the application.

7. Items the Trust Will Not Fund

- 7.1. The Trust excludes the following items from consideration for funding:
 - 7.1.1. applications to cover Activities which have already concluded;
 - 7.1.2. costs incurred before the award of the grant;
 - 7.1.3. Activities which will not start (for whatever reason) within the Activity Period;
 - 7.1.4. unspecified items/expenditure;
 - 7.1.5. capital or building projects;
 - 7.1.6. costs funded by or passed onto third parties;
 - 7.1.7. applications to cover funds to be donated to third parties or endowment funds;
 - 7.1.8. penalties and taxes;
 - 7.1.9. VAT and the equivalent in any jurisdiction, where such taxes are recoverable by the applicant;
 - 7.1.10. reception and hospitality costs;
 - 7.1.11. scholarships and bursaries, which are not directly awarded to the recipient by the Trust (under terms and conditions set by the Trust);
 - 7.1.12. fees, salary and other remuneration charged by or paid to any individual who is the applicant, or who is on the management team of the applicant, for their work in connection with setting up and running the Activity.

8. Miscellaneous

- 8.1. A person who is not a party to the resulting Contract between the Trust and the applicant, if the application is successful, shall not have any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any provision of the Contract.
- 8.2. If there is a conflict between the terms contained in the Conditions, the terms stated by the Trust in the Small Grant Application Form or the offer letter from the Trust, the terms of the Conditions shall prevail to the extent of the conflict, unless expressly stated otherwise in writing from the Trust.
- 8.3. No failure, delay or omission by the Trust in exercising any right, power or remedy provided by law or under the Contract with the successful applicant shall operate as a waiver of that right, power or remedy, nor shall it preclude or restrict any future exercise of that or any other right, power or remedy.
- 8.4. The applicant agrees that the Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the applicant and the Trust and supersedes all previous agreements, understandings and arrangements between them, whether in writing or oral in respect of its subject matter.
- 8.5. The applicant shall at the request of the Trust do all acts and execute all documents which are necessary to give full effect to the Contract.
- 8.6. No variation of the Contract shall be valid or effective unless it is in writing, refers to the Contract and these Conditions and is duly signed or executed by, or on behalf of, each of the applicant and the Trust.
- 8.7. The applicant may not assign, subcontract or encumber any right or obligation under the Contract, in whole or in part, without the Trust's prior written consent, which it may withhold or delay at its absolute discretion.
- 8.8. The applicant and the Trust are independent persons and are not partners, principal and agent or employer and employee and the Contract does not establish any joint venture, trust, fiduciary or other relationship between them, other than the contractual relationship expressly provided for in it. None of the parties shall have, nor shall represent that they have, any authority to make any commitments on the other party's behalf.
- 8.9. If any provision of the Contract (or part of any provision) is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the legality, validity and enforceability of any other provision of the Contract shall not be affected.
- 8.10. If any provision of the Contract (or part of any provision) is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable but would be legal, valid and enforceable if some part of it was deleted or modified, the provision or part-provision in question shall apply with the minimum such deletions or modifications as may be necessary to make the provision legal, valid and enforceable. In the event of such deletion or modification, the parties shall negotiate in good faith in order to agree the terms of a mutually acceptable alternative provision.
- 8.11. The Contract and any dispute or claim arising out of, or in connection with, it, its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of England and Wales.
- 8.12. The parties irrevocably agree that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim arising out of, or in connection with, the Contract, its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).
